

Indicators :	Level 1 (Complete Lockdown)	Level 2 (Greatly Reduced Access)	Level 3 (Reduced Access)	Level 4 (A New Norm)	Level 5 (Unrestricted Access)
Cultural (Museums, galleries, attractions, theatres, concerts, libraries)	All cultural institutions are closed.	Some small and outdoor cultural institutions reopen with capacity limits and measures in place.	Larger and indoor cultural sites reopen with social distancing measures and capacity limits still enforced.	Cinemas and entertainment venues reopen with limited capacity, museums and other cultural institutions return to full capacity with enhanced hygiene controls	All institutions and venue return in full capacity without strict hygiene controls.
Borders and Movement (including Schengen Area)	Land, sea, rail and airport borders completely shut, banning any person (citizen or foreigner) from entering or leaving country.	Borders open to allow citizens, permanent residents and long-term residents (students, professionals) of the country to return or leave, with COVID-19 conditions. National airlines restrict commercial flights to mostly repatriation.	Borders open to citizens and foreigners, based on certain restrictions (some countries banned from entering), along with COVID-19 conditions. Airlines operate with a reduced network/capacity.	Borders open to all citizens and foreigners without mandatory quarantine, but with a physiological assessment for COVID symptoms (temperature checks) Airlines resume normal operations with COVID19 precautions (80% capacity flights, masks, etc).	Unrestricted access into country with pre-COVID19 conditions regarding visas and other entrance procedures for foreigners. Airlines operate normally at full capacity.
Gatherings (Weddings, funerals, concerts, religious services)	Gatherings prohibited, religious services cannot occur in-person.	Gatherings limited to fewer than 50 people, following physical distancing and hygiene rules (possible exemptions apply to specific cases like funerals, and religious services	Gatherings limited to a maximum of 50-200 people following physical distancing and hygiene rules.	A cap of 200+ people in gatherings but with caution on extreme mass gatherings.	No strict cap on the number of people allowed at mass gatherings.
Manufacturing & Construction	Closure of non-essential construction and manufacturing sector	Scope of essential is expanded to select construction services occurring outside (landscaping, fencing, roofing, roadworks) Often sectors work with government to develop industry-specific guidance for reopening safely	Manufacturing sector reopens with less than 50 people working at a time, under strict measures (or some other capacity restriction) Employees who do administrative tasks continue to work from home	Reopening of all types of construction (residential, institutional, commercial, industrial); New measures are in place which include: physical distancing, PPE use, hygiene/sanitation, temperature checks	COVID-19 measures are eliminated and construction and manufacturing sectors can resume old practices
Contact Services	All contact service providers are closed.	Postponed and elective health services may resume.	Some beauty and hair salons may resume by appointment, subject to new health regulations.	Walk-in beauty, hair, massage, piercings, and tattoo services may resume subject to certain restrictions	No restrictions on contact services.
Leisure Activities (Sporting, parks, going outside, amusement parks, zoos)	All public spaces closed, leaving house only allowed for essential activities (purchasing food, medicine)	Public parks begin to open with capacity limits and social distancing measures in place, people allowed to exercise outdoors. Zoos and amusement parks remain closed.	Individual recreational sports may resume, with professional athletes starting to resume training and may play behind closed doors. Zoos and amusement parks begin to open, with social distancing efforts, including a cap limit of # of people inside.	Gyms and swimming pools reopen to the general public, professional sports may have spectators with certain limitations (social distancing, hygiene, capacity limits) in place, team recreational sports allowed to operate	All leisure facilities open without restrictions
Eateries (restaurants, bars, cafes)	Eateries are closed.	Eateries can offer delivery services, curb-side pick up or drive thru services	Eateries can reopen at 50% capacity, measures in place include distancing between tables, sanitation measures, no standing room at bar, reservations	Full reopening of eateries with some exceptions (i.e bars) being able to operate almost at full capacity with safety measures in place	COVID-19 measures are eliminated and eateries can operate at full capacity and resume original practices
Schooling and Youth Activities	All schools and Universities close until further notice with online learning.	Select levels of education, including daycares and nurseries, reopen with restrictions regarding attendance. Outdoor classes encouraged for more space.	Select levels of education reopen for final exams with strict preventive measures in place. Some in-person youth activities resume.	All levels of education and youth activities reopen with strict measures in place. Online classes remain an option for students.	All levels of education and youth activities reopen at full capacity with all classes held in person
Stores and Non-Essential Businesses	All non-essential businesses and shopping centres are closed, while grocery stores, pharmacies, gas stations, liquor stores, are allowed to remain open, subject to strict hygienic guidelines. Non-essential businesses are mandated to telework.	Some small-medium sized stores and shopping centres allowed to reopen, subject to guidelines regarding capacity, use of facemasks, and physical distance between patrons. Teleworking continues for most non-essential personnel.	Larger stores and shopping centres allowed to reopen, subject to guidelines regarding capacity, use of facemasks, and physical distance between patrons. Small conferences and meetings may occur with restrictions.	Most stores allowed to reopen while maintaining rules regarding physical distance and capacity. Office spaces may reopen with a higher capacity and subject to new regulations. Larger meetings and conferences may occur	Stores and non-essential businesses reopen normally without regard to capacity or physical distancing measures